1                   “(i) shall be exempt from disclosure
2                   under section 552 of title 5, United States
3                   Code, if—

4                   “(I) the Director of National In-5                   telligence determines, in writing, that 6                   the security interest in preventing the 7                   disclosure of such information out-
8                   weighs the public interest consider-
9                   ation in the disclosure of such infor-
10                  mation;

11                  “(II) the determination under 12                  subclause (I) includes clear and 13                  articulable reasons supporting such 14                  determination sufficient to show such 15                  determination was not arbitrary and 16                  capricious; and

1                   “(III) the Director of National 2                   Intelligence makes the determination
3                   under subclause (I) publicly available;
