

Amendment to the Amendment in the Nature of a Substitute to H.R. 3361
Offered By Mr. Amash of Michigan

In Sec. 108, after paragraph (2), insert the following new paragraph (3) and renumber accordingly :

“(3) by inserting after subsection (b) the following new subsection and renumbering accordingly:

‘(c) Prohibition on Reprisals for Participating in Audit.—
A government employee or a contractor may not be discharged, demoted, or otherwise discriminated against as a reprisal for disclosing to the Inspector General as part of the Inspector General’s audit required under subsection (a) information the employee or contractor believes is evidence of improper or illegal use of the investigative authority provided to the Federal Bureau of Investigation under Title V of the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act of 1978.’”