3 DIVISION B—VACCINE TAR-
4 GETING ROGUE AND OPAQUE
5 LETTERS

6 SECTION 11. SHORT TITLE.

7 This division may be cited as the “Vaccine Targeting 8 Rogue and Opaque Letters Act of 2021” or the “Vaccine
9 TROL Act of 2021”.

10 SEC. 12. SUSPENSION OF DEMAND LETTERS RELATED TO

11 COVID-19.

12 (a) SUSPENDING DEMAND LETTERS RELATED TO 13 COVID-19.—For the duration of a public health emergency
14 declared pursuant to section 319 of the Public Health
15 Service Act (42 U.S.C. 247d) as a result of confirmed

1 cases of 2019 novel coronavirus (COVID–19), including 2 any renewal thereof, it shall be unlawful for any person,
3 in connection with the assertion of a United States patent,
4 to engage in a pattern or practice of sending written com-5 munications that state or represent that the recipients are 6 or may be infringing, or have or may have infringed, a 7 patent regarding COVID–19 related products and bear li-8 ability or owe compensation to another, if—

9 (1) the sender of the communications, in bad
10 faith, states or represents in the communications 11 that—

12 (A) the sender is a person with the right 13 to license or enforce the patent at the time the 14 communications are sent, and the sender is not 15 a person with such a right;

16 (B) a civil action asserting a claim of in-
17 fringement of the patent has been filed against 18 the recipient;

19 (C) a civil action asserting a claim of in-
20 fringement of the patent has been filed against 21 other persons;

22 (D) legal action for infringement of the 23 patent will be taken against the recipient;

24 (E) the sender is the exclusive licensee of 25 the patent asserted in the communications;

1 (F) persons other than the recipient pur-
2 chased a license for the patent asserted in the 3 communications;

4 (G) persons other than the recipient pur-
5 chased a license, and the sender does not dis-
6 close that such license is unrelated to the al-7 leged infringement or the patent asserted in the 8 communications;

9 (H) an investigation of the recipient's al-10 leged infringement occurred; or

11 (I) the sender or an affiliate of the sender
12 previously filed a civil action asserting a claim 13 of infringement of the patent based on the ac-
14 tivity that is the subject of the written commu-
15 nication when such activity was held, in a final 16 determination, not to infringe the patent;

17 (2) the sender of the communications, in bad 18 faith, seeks compensation for—

19 (A) a patent claim that has been held to 20 be unenforceable due to inequitable conduct, in-21 valid, or otherwise unenforceable against the re-
22 cipient, in a final determination;

23 (B) activities undertaken by the recipient 24 after expiration of the patent asserted in the 25 communications; or

1 (C) activity of the recipient that was au-
2 thorized, with respect to the patent claim or 3 claims that are the subject of the communica-
4 tions, by a person with the right to license the 5 patent; or

6 (3) the sender of the communications, in bad
7 faith, fails to include—

8 (A) the identity of the person asserting a 9 right to license the patent to, or enforce the 10 patent against, the recipient, including the iden-
11 tity of any parent entity and the ultimate par-12 ent entity of such person, unless such person is 13 a public company and the name of the public 14 company is identified;

15 (B) an identification of at least one patent
16 issued by the United States Patent and Trade-
17 mark Office alleged to have been infringed;

18 (C) an identification, to the extent reason-
19 able under the circumstances, of at least one 20 product, service, or other activity of the recipi-
21 ent that is alleged to infringe the identified pat-22 ent;

23 (D) a description, to the extent reasonable 24 under the circumstances, of how the product,

1 service, or other activity of the recipient in-2 fringes an identified patent and patent claim; or 3 (E) a name and contact information for a 4 person the recipient may contact about the as-5 sertions or claims relating to the patent con-
6 tained in the communications.

7 (b) PRESUMPTION OF BAD FAITH.—A written com-8 munication is presumed to have been sent in bad faith if, 9 after receiving a written request by the recipient to provide 10 any of the information required in subsection (a)(3) or a 11 patent claim reasonably believed to have been infringed, 12 the sender fails to provide such information to the recipi-13 ent within 10 business days after the date on which the 14 request is received.

15 (c) AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE.—With respect to sub-16 section (a), there shall be an affirmative defense that a 17 statement, representation, or omission was not made in 18 bad faith (as defined in subparagraphs (B) or (C) of sec-19 tion 14(1)) if the sender can demonstrate that such state-20 ment, representation, or omission was a mistake made in 21 good faith, which may be demonstrated by a preponder-22 ance of evidence that the violation was not intentional and 23 resulted from a bona fide error notwithstanding the main-24 tenance of procedures or policies reasonably adapted to 25 avoid any such error.

1 (d) RULE OF CONSTRUCTION.—For purposes of sec-
2 tions 13 and 14, the commission of an act or practice that 3 is declared under this section to be an unfair or deceptive 4 act or practice within the meaning of section 5(a)(1) of 5 the Federal Trade Commission Act (15 U.S.C. 45(a)(1))
6 shall be considered to be a violation of this section.

7 SEC. 13. ENFORCEMENT BY FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION.

8 (a) VIOLATION OF RULE.—A violation of section 12
9 shall be treated as a violation of a rule defining an unfair
10 or deceptive act or practice prescribed under section 11 18(a)(1)(B) of the Federal Trade Commission Act (15 12 U.S.C. 57a(a)(1)(B)).

13 (b) POWERS OF COMMISSION.—The Commission
14 shall enforce this Act in the same manner, by the same 15 means, and with the same jurisdiction, powers, and duties
16 as though all applicable terms and provisions of the Fed-17 eral Trade Commission Act (15 U.S.C. 41 et seq.) were 18 incorporated into and made a part of this Act. Any person 19 who violates section 12 shall be subject to the penalties 20 and entitled to the privileges and immunities provided in 21 the Federal Trade Commission Act.

22 (c) EFFECT ON OTHER LAWS.—Nothing in this Act
23 shall be construed in any way to limit or affect the author-
24 ity of the Commission under any other provision of law.

1 (d) ENFORCEMENT BY STATE ATTORNEYS GEN-
2 ERAL.—

3 (1) IN GENERAL.—In any case in which the at-4 torney general of a State has reason to believe that 5 an interest of the residents of that State has been 6 adversely affected by any person who violates section 7 12, the attorney general of the State, may bring a
8 civil action on behalf of such residents of the State
9 in a district court of the United States of appro-
10 priate jurisdiction—

11 (A) to enjoin further such violation by the 12 defendant; or

13 (B) to obtain civil penalties on behalf of 14 recipients who suffered actual damages as a re-15 sult of such violation.

16 (2) MAXIMUM CIVIL PENALTY.—Notwith-
17 standing the number of actions which may be 18 brought against a person under this subsection, a 19 person may not be liable for a total of more than 20 $1,000,000 for every death related to COVID-19 in 21 the United States.

22 (3) INTERVENTION BY THE FTC.—

23 (A) NOTICE AND INTERVENTION.—The at-24 torney general of a State shall provide prior 25 written notice of any action under paragraph

1 (1) to the Commission and provide the Commis-
2 sion with a copy of the complaint in the action, 3 except in any case in which such prior notice is 4 not feasible, in which case the attorney general
5 shall serve such notice immediately upon insti-6 tuting such action. The Commission shall have 7 the right—

8 (i) to intervene in the action;

9 (ii) upon so intervening, to be heard 10 on all matters arising therein; and 11 (iii) to file petitions for appeal.

12 (B) LIMITATION ON STATE ACTION WHILE
13 FEDERAL ACTION IS PENDING.—If the Commis-14 sion has instituted a civil action for violation of 15 section 12, no State attorney general may bring 16 an action under this subsection during the 17 pendency of that action against any defendant 18 named in the complaint of the Commission for 19 any violation of such section alleged in the com-20 plaint.

21 (4) CONSTRUCTION.—For purposes of bringing 22 any civil action under paragraph (1), nothing in this 23 Act shall be construed to prevent the attorney gen-
24 eral of a State from exercising the powers conferred

1 on the attorney general by the laws of that State 2 to—

3 (A) conduct investigations;

4 (B) administer oaths or affirmations; or

5 (C) compel the attendance of witnesses or 6 the production of documentary and other evi-
7 dence.

8 SEC. 14. DEFINITIONS.

9 In this division:

10 (1) BAD FAITH.—The term “bad faith” means, 11 with respect to section 12, that the sender—

12 (A) made a knowingly false or knowingly
13 misleading statement, representation, or omis-
14 sion;

15 (B) made a statement, representation, or 16 omission with reckless indifference as to the 17 false or misleading nature of such statement, 18 representation, or omission; or

19 (C) made a statement, representation, or 20 omission with awareness of the high probability 21 of the statement, representation, or omission to 22 deceive and the sender intentionally avoided the 23 truth.

24 (2) COMMISSION.—The term “Commission”
25 means the Federal Trade Commission.

1 (3) FINAL DETERMINATION.—The term “final
2 determination” means, with respect to the invalidity 3 or unenforceability of a patent, that the invalidity or 4 unenforceability has been determined by a court of 5 the United States or the United States Patent and 6 Trademark Office in a final decision that is 7 unappealable or for which any opportunity for ap-8 peal is no longer available.
