AMENDMENT TO RULES COMMITTEE PRINT 118–10

OFFERED BY MRS. CAMMACK OF FLORIDA

At the end of division C, insert the following:

TITLE XXXVI—TAIWAN
PRECLEARANCE

SEC. 3601. SENSE OF CONGRESS.

It is the sense of Congress that—

(1) Taiwan is a steadfast partner of the United States in the common pursuit of a free and open Indo-Pacific region; and

(2) the United States should prioritize the establishment of preclearance facilities and other security programs with allies and partners in the Indo-Pacific region, including Taiwan.

SEC. 3602. DEFINED TERM.

In this title, the term “appropriate congressional committees” means—

(1) the Committee on Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs of the Senate;

(2) the Committee on Finance of the Senate;

(3) the Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation of the Senate;
(4) the Committee on Homeland Security of the House of Representatives; and

(5) the Committee on Ways and Means of the House of Representatives.

SEC. 3603. REPORT.

Not later than 180 days after the date of the enactment of this title, the Secretary of Homeland Security, in consultation with the Secretary of Commerce, shall submit a report to the appropriate congressional committees that—

(1) analyzes the feasibility and advisability for the establishment of a preclearance facility in Taiwan;

(2) describes the plan for the establishment of a preclearance facility in Taiwan or in other countries in the Indo-Pacific region;

(3) assesses the impacts that preclearance operations in Taiwan will have on—

(A) the security partnership between the United States and Taiwan;

(B) trade between the United States and Taiwan, including the impact on established supply chains;
(C) the tourism industry in the United States, including the potential impact on revenue and tourist-related commerce;

(D) United States and foreign passengers traveling to the United States for business-related activities;

(E) cost savings and potential market access by expanding operations into the Indo-Pacific region;

(F) opportunities for government-to-government collaboration available in Taiwan after preclearance operations are established; and

(G) U.S. Customs and Border Patrol international and domestic port of entry staffing; and

(4) includes country-specific information on the anticipated homeland security benefits and the security vulnerabilities associated with conducting preclearance operations in Taiwan.
