

AMENDMENT TO RULES COMM. PRINT 117-31
OFFERED BY MR. CUELLAR OF TEXAS

Add at the end of title IV of division D the following:

1 SEC. 30405. STRATEGY TO ENHANCE COOPERATION WITH 2 MEXICO ON SUPPLY CHAIN RESILIENCY.

3 (a) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—It is the sense of Con-
4 gress that—

5 (1) the United States and Mexico have a unique
6 relationship based on shared geography, extensive
7 personal connections, deep economic ties, and a
8 shared vision to uphold democracy and human 9 rights;

10 (2) Mexico is a strategic United States ally, 11 neighbor, and top export destinations for United 12 States products;

13 (3) Mexico is a producer of numerous critical 14 goods and inputs, and an important supplier to the 15 United States;

16 (4) building strong regional supply chains in 17 North America is crucial to ensure that critical
18 sources of essential supplies and materials are avail-
19 able when needed; and

1 (5) the U.S.-Mexico-Canada Agreement
2 (USMCA) is the United States' most advanced,
3 highest-standard trade agreement, with cutting-edge
4 labor and environment chapters and the strongest
5 enforcement mechanisms of any U.S. trade agree-6 ment.

7 (b) REPORTING REQUIREMENT.—

8 (1) IN GENERAL.—Not later than 180 days
9 after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Sec-
10 retary of State, in coordination with the United 11 States Trade Representative and the Secretary of 12 Commerce, and with input from civil society and the 13 private sector, shall develop and submit to Congress 14 a comprehensive strategy that describes how the 15 United States will bolster cooperation with Mexico
16 on supply chain resiliency.

17 (2) OBJECTIVE.—The strategy required by 18 paragraph (1) shall define steps the United States
19 is taking, and plans to take, to work with Mexico to 20 build resilient and trusted North American supply
21 chains, especially for critical industries and emerging 22 technologies and to facilitate cooperation during 23 times of crisis.

