AMENDMENT
TO RULES COMMITTEE PRINT 116–57
OFFERED BY MR. CARBAJAL OF CALIFORNIA

At the end of subtitle E of title XVII, insert the following:

SEC. ___. CERTAIN DISEASES PRESUMED TO BE WORK-RELATED CAUSE OF DISABILITY OR DEATH FOR FEDERAL EMPLOYEES IN FIRE PROTECTION ACTIVITIES.

(a) DEFINITION.—Section 8101 of title 5, United States Code, is amended—

(1) by striking “and” at the end of paragraph (19);

(2) by striking the period at the end of paragraph (20) and inserting “; and”; and

(3) by adding at the end the following:

“(21) ‘employee in fire protection activities’ means a firefighter, paramedic, emergency medical technician, rescue worker, ambulance personnel, or hazardous material worker, who—

“(A) is trained in fire suppression;

“(B) has the legal authority and responsibility to engage in fire suppression;
“(C) is engaged in the prevention, control, and extinguishment of fires or response to emergency situations where life, property, or the environment is at risk; and

“(D) performs such activities as a primary responsibility of his or her job.’’.

(b) PRESCRIPTION RELATING TO EMPLOYEES IN FIRE PROTECTION ACTIVITIES.—Section 8102 of title 5, United States Code, is amended by adding at the end the following:

“(c)(1) With regard to an employee in fire protection activities, a disease specified in paragraph (3) shall be presumed to be proximately caused by the employment of such employee, subject to the length of service requirements specified. The disability or death of an employee in fire protection activities due to such a disease shall be presumed to result from personal injury sustained while in the performance of such employee’s duty. Such presumptions may be rebutted by a preponderance of the evidence.

“(2) Such presumptions apply only if the employee in fire protection activities is diagnosed with the disease for which presumption is sought within 10 years of the last active date of employment as an employee in fire protection activities.

“(3) The following diseases shall be presumed to be proximately caused by the employment of the employee in fire protection activities:

“(A) If the employee has been employed for a minimum of 5 years in aggregate as an employee in fire protection activities:

“(i) Heart disease.

“(ii) Lung disease.

“(iii) The following cancers:

“(I) Brain cancer.

“(II) Cancer of the blood or lymphatic systems.

“(III) Leukemia.

“(IV) Lymphoma (except Hodgkin’s disease).

“(V) Multiple myeloma.

“(VI) Bladder cancer.

“(VII) Kidney cancer.

“(VIII) Testicular cancer.

“(IX) Cancer of the digestive system.

“(X) Colon cancer.

“(XI) Liver cancer.

“(XII) Skin cancer.
“(XIII) Lung cancer.

“(XIV) Breast cancer.

“(iv) Any other cancer the contraction of which the Secretary of Labor through regulations determines to be related to the hazards to which an employee in fire protection activities may be subject.

“(B) Regardless of the length of time an employee in fire protection activities has been employed, any uncommon infectious disease, including but not limited to tuberculosis, hepatitis A, B, or C, the human immunodeficiency virus (HIV), and any other uncommon infectious disease the contraction of which the Secretary of Labor through regulations determines to be related to the hazards to which an employee in fire protection activities may be subject.”

(c) REPORT.—Not later than 5 years after the date of enactment of this Act, the National Institute of Occupational Safety and Health in the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention shall examine the implementation of this Act and appropriate scientific and medical data related to the health risks associated with firefighting and submit to Congress a report which shall include—
(1) an analysis of the injury claims made under this Act;

(2) an analysis of the available research related to the health risks associated with firefighting; and

(3) recommendations for any administrative or legislative actions necessary to ensure that those diseases most associated with firefighting are included in the presumption created by this Act.

(d) APPLICATION.—The amendments made by this section shall apply to a covered disability or death that occurs on or after the date of the enactment of this Act.
