1           (2) CONDITIONS.—

2                   (A) IN GENERAL.—A trade agreement may 3           be entered into under this subsection only if 4           such agreement makes progress in meeting the 5           applicable objectives described in subsections
6           (a) and (b) of section 102 and the President
7           satisfies the conditions set forth in sections 104
8           and 105.

9                   (B) PROHIBITION ON CERTAIN AGREE-
10           MENTS.—A trade agreement may be entered 11           into under this subsection only if the agreement 12           fully protects the right of the United States to 13           require, in a nondiscriminatory manner, disclo-
14           sure of the country of origin of food sold in the 15           United States.
