10 (e) GAO REVIEW.—Not later than one year after the 11 date on which the Administrator submits the first report
12 under subsection (a), the Comptroller General of the 13 United States shall submit to the congressional defense 14 committees a review of—

15 (1) the diversity of contractor employees with 16 respect to both the hiring and retention of such em-
17 ployees;

18 (2) the demographic composition of such em-
19 ployees; and

20 (3) the issues relating to diversity that such re-
21 port identifies and the steps taken by the Adminis-
22 trator to address such issues.

1 (f) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—It is the sense of Con-
2 gress that—

3 (1) National Nuclear Security Administration is 4 undertaking the largest and most complex workload
5 since the end of the Cold War;

6 (2) ensuring that the nuclear security enter-
7 prise hires, trains, and retains a diverse and highly 8 educated workforce is a national security priority of 9 the United States;

10 (3) more than 5,000 employees were hired at 11 the laboratories, plants, and sites of the National 12 Nuclear Security Administration during fiscal year 13 2019; and

14 (4) the National Nuclear Security Administra-
15 tion has taken important actions to hire and retain 16 the best and brightest workforce and is encouraged 17 to continue to build upon these efforts, particularly 18 as its aging workforce continues to retire.
