

HR 3351

Jackson FS4

Description

Congresswoman Jackson Lee would like to offer a financial services amendment that does the following thing: We are thinking about a limitation amendment which would restrict a president from spending money while traveling abroad at any property in which he has a financial interest.