At the end of division D (before the short title), insert the following:

TITLE IX—GENERAL PROVISIONS

SEC. 901. None of the funds made available by this Act may be used by the Securities and Exchange Commission to review or approve registration statements filed under any of Commission’s rules by issuers that are domiciled in the Russian Federation or issuers affiliated with the Russian government, or with any entity owned by or affiliated with such government, regardless of where that issuer is domiciled.

SEC. 902. None of the funds made available by this Act may be used by the Securities and Exchange Commission to approve registration statements of securities issued, or prospectuses filed under the Investment Company Act of 1940, by investment companies that intend to invest in securities, irrespective of the currency in which they are denominated, of issuers that are domiciled in the Russian Federation or of issuers affiliated with the Russian government, or with any entity owned by or affiliated with such government, regardless of where that issuer is domiciled.
