AMENDMENT TO RULES COMM. PRINT 116–57
OFFERED BY MS. GABBARD OF HAWAII

At the end of subtitle G of title XII, add the following:

SEC. __. REPORT ON ALL BILATERAL AND MULTILATERAL ECONOMIC SANCTIONS IMPOSED ON FOREIGN COUNTRIES.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Not later than 180 days after the date of the enactment of this Act, the President, in consultation with the Secretary of State, the Secretary of the Treasury, the Secretary of Commerce, the Administrator of the United States Agency for International Development, the United States Ambassador to the United Nations, and relevant nongovernmental organizations, shall submit to the appropriate congressional committees a report on all bilateral economic sanctions and multilateral economic sanctions imposed on foreign countries under any provision of law.

(b) MATTERS TO BE INCLUDED.—The report required by subsection (a) shall include—

(1) an assessment of the effect of sanctions imposed on each foreign country described in subsection (a) on—
(A) the ability of civilian population of the country to access water, sanitation, and public health services;

(B) the changes to the general mortality rate, maternal mortality rate, life expectancy, and literacy;

(C) the changes to the unemployment rate and gross national income per capita of the country;

(D) the environmental impacts experienced by the country that may be associated with the sanctions, to include fossil fuel usage;

(E) the delivery of economic aid and development projects in the country;

(F) the extent to which there is an increase in refugees or migration to or from the country or an increase in internally displaced people in the country;

(G) the economic, political, and military impacts on the country;

(H) the reactions of the country to the imposed sanctions, including policy changes and internal sentiment; and

(I) the degree of international compliance and non-compliance of the country; and
(2) a description of the purpose of sanctions imposed on each foreign country described in subsection (a) and the required legal or political authority, including—

(A) an assessment of United States national security;

(B) an assessment of whether the stated foreign policy goals of the sanctions are being met;

(C) the degree of international support or opposition that can be anticipated;

(D) an assessment of such sanctions on United States businesses and workers and the United States Government;

(E) criteria for lifting the sanction; and

(F) prospects for commitment to enforcing the sanction.

(c) UPDATES OF REPORT.—The President shall submit to Congress an updated report under subsection (a)—

(1) not later than one year after the date of the enactment of this Act, and annually thereafter; and

(2) with respect to a new bilateral economic sanction or multilateral economic sanction imposed on a foreign country under any provision of law, not later than 30 days after the date on which the sanction is imposed on the foreign country.

(d) FORM.—The report required by subsection (a) shall be submitted in unclassified form, but may contain a classified annex. The unclassified portion of the report shall be published on a publicly-available website of the Government of the United States.

(e) REVIEW BY CONGRESS.—Upon receipt of the report required by subsection (a), Congress shall examine the report with a focus on the humanitarian impacts of the bilateral economic sanctions and multilateral economic sanctions described in the report, including with respect to human rights, medical services, food and malnutrition and access to water, sanitation, and hygiene services.

(f) DEFINITIONS.—In this section:

(1) APPROPRIATE CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEES.—The term “appropriate congressional committees” means—

(A) the Committee on Foreign Affairs and the Committee on Financial Services of the House of Representatives; and

(B) the Committee on Foreign Relations and the Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs of the Senate.
(2) BILATERAL ECONOMIC SANCTION.—The term “bilateral economic sanction” means any restriction or condition on economic activity with respect to a foreign country or foreign entity that is imposed by the United States for reasons of foreign policy or national security.

(3) MULTILATERAL ECONOMIC SANCTION.—The term “multilateral economic sanction” means a case in which—

(A) the United States imposes any restriction or condition on economic activity with respect to a foreign country or foreign entity pursuant to a multilateral regime; and

(B) the other members of that regime have agreed to impose substantially equivalent restrictions or conditions.
