1 SEC. ____ . DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE REPORT ON SPACE
2 DOMAIN AWARENESS.

3 (a) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—It is the sense of Con-
4 gress that—

5 (1) the gaps, inefficiencies, and lack of space
6 domain awareness within the Department of Defense
7 and Intelligence Community are concerning;

8 (2) Space Force’s current space domain aware-
9 ness efforts, including: space control technology, De-10 fense Counterspace, Offensive Counterspace, and 11 Space Situational Awareness activities is supported 12 by Congress; and

13 (3) space domain awareness capabilities should 14 be redundant to mitigate against threats and short-
15 comings to the space domain awareness enterprise.

16 (b) SPACE DOMAIN AWARENESS REPORT.—The As-
17 sistant Secretary of the Air Force for Space Acquisition,
18 in coordination with the Director of the National Recon-

1 naissance Office and Commander of the U.S. Space Com-
2 mand, shall submit a report to the House Committee on 3 Armed Services and the Director of National Intelligence
4 not later than December 31, 2022, on a detailed funding, 5 development, procurement, and launch plan to deploy an 6 alternative space domain awareness constellation that 7 leverages optical sensor data from domestic, commercial
8 small satellites in geosynchronous orbit and how such data
9 may be integrated into existing operational decision-mak-
10 ing tactics, techniques, and procedures.
