4 TIONAL NUCLEAR SECURITY ADMINISTRA-
5 TION.

6 (a) PREFERENCE.—In carrying out programs of the 7 Department of Defense and the National Nuclear Security
8 Administration authorized under this Act, the Secretary
9 of Defense and the Administrator for Nuclear Security
10 shall, to the maximum extent practicable, give preference
11 to the sourcing of uranium and other critical minerals that 12 are mined and processed in the United States.

13 (b) REPORT.—Not later than one year after the date
14 of the enactment of this Act, the Secretary and the Ad-
15 ministrator shall jointly submit to the congressional de-16 fense committees a report containing an assessment of—

17 (1) the domestic supply of uranium and other 18 critical minerals for purposes of this section; and

1 (2) the dependence of the Department of De-
2 fense and the National Nuclear Security Administra-
3 tion on foreign countries of concern for such mate-
4 rials.

5 (c) DEFINITIONS.—In this section:

6 (1) The term “critical mineral” means any min-
7 eral on the list of critical minerals of the United 8 States Geological Survey titled “Final 2025 List of 9 Critical Minerals” (90 Fed. Reg. 50494), dated No-
10 vember 7, 2025, as in effect on the date of the en-
11 actment of this Act.

12 (2) The term “foreign country of concern”
13 means a foreign country designated as such by the 14 Secretary of Defense or the Administrator for Nu-
15 clear Security for purposes of this section.
