1 SEC. 30135. INTERAGENCY TASKFORCE.

2 (a) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary of State shall es-3 tablish an interagency taskforce to study and identify the 4 use of economic coercion and other geo-economic actions
5 by foreign powers, to coordinate potential policy responses
6 at both the domestic and foreign levels, and to advise on 7 the potential proactive use of U.S. economic power to ad-
8 vance U.S. foreign policy objectives.

9 (b) MEMBERSHIP.—The taskforce shall consist of 10 representatives from the Departments of Defense, Treas-
11 ury, Energy, and Commerce, the intelligence community,
12 and the Office of the United States Trade Representative.

13 (c) INITIAL ASSESSMENT.—The taskforce shall carry 14 out an initial assessment not later than 1 year after the 15 date of the enactment of this Act as to whether other U.S.
16 agencies have the proper authorities and tools necessary
17 to handle ongoing geo-economic challenges.

1           (d) ANNUAL REPORTS.—The taskforce shall provide
2 to Congress annual reports on active economic coercion
3 efforts.

4           (e) FORM.—The initial assessment and annual re-
5 ports shall be submitted in unclassified form, but may con-
6 tain a classified annex if needed.
