2 ON POLICY ALIGNMENT.

3 (a) RESPONSIBILITIES.—At least once annually, a
4 GFA Steering Committee meeting shall be held to—

5 (1) evaluate the extent to which the strategic 6 approach and objectives of the plans developed under 7 section 506 of the Global Fragility Act of 2019 (22
8 U.S.C. 9805) align to current United States policy
9 priorities in the relevant countries and region;

10 (2) assess the elements described in section
11 505(a)(1)(C) of the Global Fragility Act of 2019 (22
12 U.S.C. 9804(a)(1)(C)) with respect to the selection
13 of priority countries and priority regions for pur-
14 poses of the implementation of the Global Fragility
15 Act of 2019 (22 U.S.C. 9801 et seq.), and consider 16 steps to address any deficiencies in such elements;

17 (3) determine any beneficial updates or amend-
18 ments to the plans described in paragraph (1) or 19 United States policy priorities with respect to pri-

1 ority countries or regions to ensure effective short 2 and long-term alignment; and

3 (4) consider any beneficial steps to increase 4 alignment of relevant diplomatic, development, and 5 security assistance and cooperation activities with 6 the objectives of the plans described in paragraph 7 (1).

8 (b) PARTICIPATION IN STEERING COMMITTEE MEET-
9 INGS.—For purposes of each meeting conducted to fulfill
10 the requirements of subsection (a), the GFA Steering
11 Committee shall be chaired by an official of the Depart-
12 ment of State holding a position at or above the level of 13 the Deputy Secretary of State and the Deputy National
