118-10

OFFERED BY MR. JAMES OF MICHIGAN

At the end of title XVIII add the following:

1 SEC. ____ . NATIONAL STRATEGY TO RE-SHORE MINERAL

2 SUPPLY CHAINS.

3 (a) IN GENERAL.—Not later than 180 days after the 4 date of the enactment of this Act, the Secretary of the 5 Interior, acting through the Director of the United States
6 Geological Survey, in consultation with the Secretary of 7 Defense, the Secretary of Energy, and the Secretary of 8 State, shall—

9 (1) identify mineral commodities that—

10 (A) serve a critical purpose to the national 11 security of the United States, including with re-
12 spect to military, defense, and strategic mobility
13 applications; and

14 (B) are at highest risk of supply chain dis-
15 ruption due to the domestic or global actions of 16 any covered entity, including price-fixing, sys-
17 temic acquisition and control of global mineral
18 resources and processing, refining, and smelting

1           capacity, and undercutting the fair market
2           value of such resources; and

3           (2) develop a national strategy to bolster supply
4           chains in the United States for the mineral commod-
5           ities identified under paragraph (1), including 6           through the enactment of new national policies and 7           the utilization of current authorities, to increase ca-
8           pacity and efficiency of domestic mining, refining,
9           processing, and manufacturing of such mineral com-
10          modities.

11          (b) COVERED ENTITY.—In this section, the term 12          “covered entity” means an entity that—

13           (1) is subject to the jurisdiction or direction of 14           the People’s Republic of China;

15           (2) is directly or indirectly operating on behalf
16           of the People’s Republic of China; or

17           (3) is owned by, directly or indirectly controlled
18           by, or otherwise subject to the influence of the Peo-
19           ple’s Republic of China.
