At the end of subtitle B of title XVIII, add the following:

SEC. __. JUSTICE AND ACCOUNTABILITY STRATEGY FOR SUDAN CONFLICT.
(a) IN GENERAL.—Not later than 180 days after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Secretary of State and the Administrator of the United States Agency for International Development, in consultation with other Federal departments and agencies, shall submit a strategy to the appropriate congressional committees detailing plans or mechanisms to promote justice and accountability for human rights violations against civilians in Sudan, including in Darfur.

(b) MATTERS TO BE INCLUDED.—The strategy required by subsection (a) shall include a description of the following:

(1) Mechanisms for collecting evidence and ensuring documentation of ongoing atrocities, such as any plans to—
(A) engage and support civil society organizations and international experts in such efforts; and

(B) utilize the Sudan Conflict Observatory to support independent documentation of human rights violations.

(2) Lessons from previously unsuccessful efforts to end impunity for atrocity crimes in Darfur, including genocide, that the United States is using to inform the strategy to promote justice and accountability for renewed atrocities in Sudan.

(3) Diplomatic efforts to galvanize regional and international support for justice and accountability mechanisms, including any plans to—

(A) advocate for a United Nations-mandated investigative body to collect and preserve evidence of the crimes and promote credible transitional justice;

(B) cooperate with the International Criminal Court (ICC); and

(C) work with the Intergovernmental Authority on Development (IGAD) to put in place a robust monitoring and accountability mechanism to bring perpetrators to justice.
(4) Any specific efforts to pursue justice and accountability for the use of gender-based and sexual violence as a weapon of war, including any plans to—

(A) use United States sanctions authorities on perpetrators of sexual violence as a weapon of war; and

(B) support victim-centered approaches in pursuing justice for these crimes, such as witness protection and trauma counseling.

(c) FORM.—The strategy required by subsection (a) shall be submitted in unclassified form, and may include a classified appendix.

(d) APPROPRIATE CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEES DEFINED.—In this section, the term “appropriate congressional committees” means to the Committee on Foreign Affairs of the House of Representatives and the Committee on Foreign Relations of the Senate.
