4 after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Director
5 of National Intelligence shall submit to the Permanent Se-
6 lect Committee on Intelligence of the House of Represent-7 atives and the Select Committee on Intelligence of the 8 Senate a report on the potential establishment of a center,
9 to be known as the “Foreign Malign Influence Response 10 Center” that—

11 (1) is comprised of analysts from all appro-
12 priate elements of the intelligence community, in-
13 cluding elements with related diplomatic and law en-
14 forcement functions;

15 (2) has access to all intelligence and other re-
16 porting acquired by the United States Government 17 on foreign efforts to influence, through overt and 18 covert malign activities, United States political proc-
19 esses and elections;

1           (3) provides comprehensive assessment, and in-
2           dications and warning, of such activities; and

3           (4) provides for enhanced dissemination of such 4           assessment to United States policy makers.

5           (b) CONTENTS.—The Report required by subsection
6 (a)—

7           (1) shall contain, at a minimum, a discussion of 8           the desirability of the establishment of such center
9           and any barriers to such establishment; and

10          (2) may contain any recommendations the Di-
11          rector determines appropriate.
