AMENDMENT TO RULES COMM. PRINT 118–10
OFFERED BY MR. KILDEE OF MICHIGAN

At the end of subtitle B of title XVIII, insert the following:

SEC. ___. REPORT ON UNITED STATES RESPONSE TO THE CONFLICT IN SUDAN WITH RESPECT TO JUSTICE, ACCOUNTABILITY, AND SANCTIONS.
(a) Report Required.—Not later than 180 days after the date of the enactment of this Act, the President shall submit a written report, which may include a classified annex, to the appropriate congressional committees on the actions of the United States with respect to justice, accountability, and sanctions to address the ongoing conflict in Sudan.
(b) Elements With Respect to Justice, Accountability and Sanctions.—The President, in consultation with the Secretary of State and Secretary of the Treasury, shall also include in the report required by subsection (a) each of the following:
(1) An identification of foreign and Sudanese diaspora entities attempting to undermine the peace, security, and stability of Sudan or prevent a transition to democracy by assisting either combatants or democratic spoilers, including a description of the economic influence of such entities and how their involvement in Sudan’s commerce and industry impedes a democratic transition;

(2) A description of the primary sources of financing on which the Rapid Support Forces and Sudanese armed forces have relied since the conflict began, and the extent to which either party is able to benefit from gold revenue;

(3) A description of efforts to hold accountable actors threatening peace, security, and stability in Sudan or undermining Sudan’s democratic transition, and efforts to reconstitute a civilian-led transitional government with the goal of transitioning to democracy in Sudan, including—

(A) the effectiveness of sanctions and visa
bans for advancing these goals;

(B) the diplomatic strategy of the United States for leveraging such sanctions and visa
bans to advance these goals;

(C) the number of full-time employees of the Department of State and Department of Treasury dedicated to such efforts; and
(D) an assessment of whether current resources and authorities devoted to such efforts are sufficient to accomplish these goals.

(c) APPROPRIATE CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEES.—

In this section, the term “appropriate congressional committees” means—

(1) the Committee on Armed Services, the Committee on Foreign Relations, and the Committee on Appropriations of the Senate; and

(2) the Committee on Armed Services, the Committee on Foreign Affairs, and the Committee on Appropriations of the House of Representatives.
