

AMENDMENT

OFFERED BY MR. LARSON OF CONNECTICUT

Add at the end of the bill the following:

1 TITLE VI—EFFECTIVE DATE

2 SEC. 6001. EFFECTIVE DATE.

3 (a) TERMINATION.—All provisions of, and amend-
4 ments made by, this Act shall not apply—

5 (1) to taxable, plan, or limitation years begin-
6 ning after the date described in subsection (b), or

7 (2) in the case of title V, to estates of decedents
8 dying, gifts made, or generation skipping transfers,
9 after such date.

10 (b) DATE DESCRIBED.—The date described in this
11 paragraph is the first date on which a report submitted
12 under subsection (c) fails to determine under paragraph
13 (2) of such subsection that the United States is on track
14 as described in such paragraph.

15 (c) REPORT.—For each year after 2017, the Sec-
16 retary of the Treasury shall submit to Congress a report
17 containing—

18 (1) information on—

19 (A) domestic job growth in such year, and

1 (B) the projected domestic job growth that
2 would have taken place during that year if this
3 Act had not been enacted, and

4 (2) a determination of whether the United
5 States is on track to experience domestic job growth,
6 attributable to the provisions of this Act, of at least
7 1 million jobs by 2027.
