Subtitle C—Foreign Election Interference Media Literacy Guide

SEC. 321. FOREIGN ELECTION INTERFERENCE MEDIA LITERACY GUIDE.

(a) DEVELOPMENT AND DISSEMINATION.—The Election Assistance Commission shall develop, regularly update, and publicly disseminate not later than January 1 of each even-numbered year a publication to be known as the “Foreign Election Interference Media Literacy Guide” to educate and assist the public in identifying the use of deep fakes and other evolving technologies to spread disinformation and propaganda online and influence elections for public office in the United States.

(b) CONSULTATION.—In developing the Guide under this section, the Election Assistance Commission shall consult with the Federal Election Commission, the Secretary of Defense (including the Director of the Defense Advanced Research Projects Agency), the Secretary of State, the head of each agency included in paragraph (4) of section 3 of the National Security Act of 1947 (50 U.S.C. 3003(4)) (including the National Counterterrorism Center and the National Counterproliferation Center), and the Comptroller General of the United States, and shall take into consideration international and private sector best practices designed to educate the public sector on the use of social media to spread disinformation and propaganda online.
