24 shall agree to, with respect to the program under sub-
25 section (a), carry out the following activities:

1           “(1) The conduct of intensive outpatient pro-
2           grams of short duration under such program, for the 3           purpose of treating members of the armed forces
4           suffering from post-traumatic stress disorder, trau-
5           matic brain injuries, or co-occurring disorders re-
6           lated to military sexual trauma, including treatment
7           for substance abuse, depression, and other issues re-
8           lated to such conditions.

9           “(2) The use of evidence-based and evidence-in-10          formed treatment strategies in carrying out such 11          programs.

12          “(3) The sharing of clinical and outreach best 13          practices with other entities that have entered into 14          partnerships under subsection (b).

15          “(4) The assessment, on an annual basis for 16          the duration of the partnership, of health outcomes
17          for members of the armed forces with respect to the 18          treatment of the conditions described in paragraph 19          (1), both individually and with such other entities as 20          may have entered into partnerships under subsection
21          (b).”.

22          (b) REPORTS.—

23                 (1) INITIAL REPORT.—Not later than 180 days
24                 after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Sec-
