6	SEC. 17 REPORT ON ARMS SALES OF THE PEOPLE'S RE-
7	PUBLIC OF CHINA.
8	(a) In General.—Not later than 180 days after the
9	date of the enactment of this Act, and annually thereafter,
10	the Secretary of Defense, in coordination with the Sec-
11	retary of State, shall submit to the appropriate congres-
12	sional committees a report on arms sales facilitated by en-
13	tities in the People's Republic of China.
14	(b) Contents.—The report required by subsection
15	(a) shall include an analysis of—
16	(1) the weapons systems and defense equipment
17	originating from the People's Republic of China
18	available for purchase;

1	(2) the technical aspects and capabilities of
2	such weapons systems and defense equipment;
3	(3) how such weapons systems and defense
4	equipment may impact the balance of power in the
5	area of responsibility of each United States Combat-
6	ant Command, when applicable;
7	(4) the weapons systems and defense equipment
8	originating from the People's Republic of China that
9	are considered direct alternatives to weapons sys-
10	tems and defense equipment originating from the
11	United States;
12	(5) the weapons systems and defense equipment
13	originating from the People's Republic of China that
14	present the greatest security risks regarding the po-
15	tential to collect intelligence on or compromise as-
16	sets, weapons, or platforms of the United States;
17	(6) the countries mostly likely to procure weap-
18	ons systems and defense equipment originating from
19	the People's Republic of China, including the specific
20	type, quantity, and estimated value in United States
21	dollars of weapons, during the 1-year period fol-
22	lowing the date of the submission of the report;
23	(7) the weapons systems and defense equipment
24	in development as of the date of the submission of
25	the report by entities in the People's Republic of

1	China that could be available on the global market
2	not later than 5 years after such date;
3	(8) the factors that incentivize countries to pro-
4	cure such weapons systems and defense equipment,
5	including costs, flexible payment conditions and fi-
6	nancing, a lack of end-user agreements, and speed
7	of sale and delivery; and
8	(9) the strategy of the People's Republic of
9	China regarding arms sales and variables that could
10	influence such strategy.
11	(c) FORM.—
12	(1) In general.—The report required by sub-
13	section (a) shall be submitted in unclassified form,
14	but shall include a classified annex.
15	(2) Classified annex.—The classified annex
16	required by paragraph (1) shall contain—
17	(A) an assessment by the National Intel-
18	ligence Council of the contents required by sub-
19	section (b); and
20	(B) an assessment by the Director of Na-
21	tional Intelligence of the counterintelligence
22	risks and risks of onward proliferation of tech-
23	nology and defense systems originating in the
24	United States and created through the pur-
25	chase, deployment, and use of weapons systems

(a) IN GENERAL.—Not later than 1 year after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Secretary of State, in coordination with the Secretary of Defense, shall develop a strategy to dissuade purchases of new weapons systems and defense equipment, excluding spare parts or parts for maintenance of previously procured weapons,

1	(1) An information campaign targeting coun-
2	tries interested in procuring weapons systems and
3	defense equipment originating from the People's Re-
4	public of China to warn such countries about—
5	(A) potential risks, including the lack of a
6	proven track record in combat, insufficient
7	training on the operation of the weapon or
8	weapons system, reliability issues, and the lack
9	of maintenance and spare parts available;
10	(B) the inability to integrate such weapons
11	systems and defense equipment with weapons
12	systems and defense equipment from the United
13	States; and
14	(C) the potential limitation of future secu-
15	rity cooperation with the United States that
16	could arise if such weapons are acquired.
17	(2) A description of actions the United States
18	can take, including reforms to the foreign military
19	sales, direct commercial sales, and foreign military
20	financing processes, to make weapons systems and
21	defense equipment from the United States more at-
22	tractive to prospective buyers of weapons systems or
23	defense equipment originating from the People's Re-
24	public of China.

1	(3) A description of actions defense firms of the
2	United States can take to provide competitive alter-
3	natives to prospective buyers of weapons systems
4	and defense equipment originating from the People's
5	Republic of China.
6	(4) An analysis of whether the use of sanctions,
7	export controls, or other economic restrictions tar-
8	geting buyers of new weapons systems or defense
9	equipment originating from the People's Republic of
10	China could serve as an effective deterrent.
11	(5) A plan to ensure sufficient representation of
12	defense firms of the United States, or trusted allies,
13	at defense expositions where defense firms of the
14	People's Republic of China are also attending.
15	(6) A plan to combat Chinese disinformation
16	campaigns targeting the performance of weapons or
17	platforms produced by the United States or trusted
18	allies.
19	(7) A plan to ensure close coordination with
20	Congress to prevent disjointed engagement with
21	countries.
22	(c) Report and Implementation Plan.—Not
23	later than the date on which the strategy required by sub-
24	section (a) is completed, the Secretary of State shall sub-

1	mit to the appropriate congressional committees a report
2	detailing the strategy and a plan for implementation.
3	(d) FORM.—The report required by subsection (c)
4	shall be submitted in unclassified form, but may include
5	a classified annex.
