SEC. ___. STATEMENT OF POLICY ON THE SECRETARY GENERAL OF NATO.

It is the policy of the United States that the next Secretary General of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO)—

(1) be a national of a country that meets the NATO threshold of two percent spending of its gross domestic product on defense;

(2) have a clear and consistent record of opposing the efforts by the Chinese Communist Party to challenge Euro-Atlantic interests, security and values as well as to divide the transatlantic alliance and containing Communist Chinese aggression; and

(3) have a clear and consistent record of opposing the significant threat posed by the Russian Federation to peace and stability in the Euro-Atlantic area.
