AMENDMENT TO RULES COMMITTEE PRINT 117–8

OFFERED BY MR. NEGUSE OF COLORADO

At the end of the print, insert the following (and amend the table of contents accordingly):

DIVISION H—COMMUNITY RESILIENCE AND RESTORATION FUND

SECTION 12001. DEFINITIONS.

For purposes of this division:

(1) ELIGIBLE ENTITY.—The term “eligible entity” means a Federal agency, State, the District of Columbia, a territory of the United States, a unit of local government, an Indian Tribe, a non-profit organization, or an accredited institution of higher education.

(2) ELIGIBLE PROJECTS AND ACTIVITIES.—The term “eligible projects and activities” means projects and activities carried out by an eligible entity on public lands, tribal lands, or private land, or any combination thereof, to further the purposes for which the Fund is established, including planning and capacity building and projects and activities carried out in coordination with Federal, State, or tribal departments or agencies, or any department or agency of a subdivision of a State.

(3) FOUNDATION.—The term “Foundation” means the National Fish and Wildlife Foundation established under the National Fish and Wildlife Foundation Establishment Act (16 U.S.C. 3701 et seq.).

(4) FUND.—The term “Fund” means the Community Resilience and Restoration Fund established under this Act.

(5) INDIAN TRIBE.—The term “Indian Tribe” means the governing body of any individually identified and federally recognized Indian or Alaska Native Tribe, band, nation, pueblo, village, community, affiliated Tribal group, or component reservation in the list published pursuant to section 104(a) of the Federally Recognized Indian Tribe List Act of 1994 (25 U.S.C. 5131(a)).

(6) RESTORATION AND RESILIENCE LANDS.—The term “restoration and resilience lands” means fish, wildlife, and plant habitats, and other important natural areas in the United States, on public lands, private land (after obtaining proper consent from the landowner), or land of Indian Tribes, including: grasslands, shrublands, prairies, chapparal lands, forest lands, deserts, and riparian or wetland areas within or adjacent to these ecosystems.

(7) PUBLIC LANDS.—The term “public lands” means lands owned or controlled by the United States or any of its agencies, with the cooperation of the agency having jurisdiction thereof.

(8) SECRETARY.—The term “Secretary” means the Secretary of the Interior, acting through the Director of the United States Fish and Wildlife Service.

(9) STATE.—The term “State” means a State of the United States, the District of Columbia, any Indian tribe, and any commonwealth, territory, or possession of the United States.

SEC. 12002. ESTABLISHMENT OF FUND.
Not later than 180 days after the date of enactment of this division, the Secretary shall enter into a cooperative agreement with the Foundation to establish the Fund at the Foundation to—

(1) to protect, conserve, and restore restoration and resilience lands, in order to help communities respond and adapt to natural threats, including those posed by the impacts of global climate change.
(2) to build the resilience of restoration and resilience lands to adapt to, recover from, and withstand natural threats, including those posed by the impacts of global climate change;

(3) to protect and enhance the biodiversity of wildlife populations across restoration and resilience lands;

(4) to support the health of restoration and resilience lands for the benefit of present and future generations;

(5) to foster innovative, nature-based solutions that help meet the goals of this section; and

(6) to enhance the nation’s natural carbon sequestration capabilities and help communities strengthen natural carbon sequestration capacity where applicable.

SEC. 12003. MANAGEMENT OF THE FUND.

The Foundation shall manage the Fund—

(1) pursuant to the National Fish and Wildlife Foundation Establishment Act (16 U.S.C. 3701 et seq.); and

(2) in such a manner that, to the greatest extent practicable and consistent with the purposes for which the Fund is established—
(A) ensures that amounts made available through the Fund are accessible to historically underserved communities, including Tribal communities, communities of color, and rural communities; and

(B) avoids project selection and funding overlap with those projects and activities that could otherwise receive funding under—

(i) the National Oceans and Coastal Security Fund, established under the National Oceans and Coastal Security Act (16 U.S.C. 7501); or

(ii) other coastal management focused programs.

SEC. 12004. COMPETITIVE GRANTS.

(a) IN GENERAL.—To the extent amounts are available in the Fund, the Foundation shall award grants to eligible entities through a competitive grant process in accordance with procedures established pursuant to the National Fish and Wildlife Foundation Establishment Act (16 U.S.C. 3701 et seq.) to carry out eligible projects and activities, including planning eligible projects and activities.
(b) PROPOSALS.—The Foundation, in coordination with the Secretary, shall establish requirements for proposals for competitive grants under this section.

SEC. 12005. USE OF AMOUNTS IN THE FUND.

(a) PLANNING.—Not less than 8 percent of amounts appropriated annually to the Fund may be used to plan eligible projects and activities, including capacity building.

(b) ADMINISTRATIVE COSTS.—Not more than 4 percent of amounts appropriated annually to the Fund may be used by the Foundation for administrative expenses of the Fund or administration of competitive grants offered under the Fund.

(c) PRIORITY.—Not less than $10,000,000 shall be awarded annually to support eligible projects and activities for Indian Tribes.

SEC. 12006. REPORTS.

(a) ANNUAL REPORTS.—Beginning at the end the first full fiscal year after the date of enactment of this division, and not later than 60 days after the end of each fiscal year in which amounts are deposited into the Fund, the Foundation shall submit to the Secretary a report on the operation of the Fund including—

(1) an accounting of expenditures made under the Fund, including leverage and match where applicable;
(2) an accounting of any grants made under the Fund, including a list of recipients and a brief description of each project and its purposes and goals; and

(3) measures and metrics to track benefits created by grants administered under the Fund, including enhanced biodiversity, water quality, natural carbon sequestration, and resilience.

(b) 5–YEAR REPORTS.—Not later than 90 days after the end of the fifth full fiscal year after the date of enactment of this division, and not later than 90 days after the end every fifth fiscal year thereafter, the Foundation shall submit to the Secretary a report containing—

(1) a description of any socioeconomic, biodiversity, community resilience, or climate resilience or mitigation (including natural carbon sequestration), impacts generated by projects funded by grants awarded by the Fund, including measures and metrics illustrating these impacts;

(2) a description of land health benefits derived from projects funded by grants awarded by the Fund, including an accounting of—

(A) lands treated for invasive species;

(B) lands treated for wildfire threat reduction, including those treated with controlled burning or other natural fire-management techniques; and

(C) lands restored either from wildfire or other forms or degradation, including over-grazing and sedimentation;

(3) key findings for Congress, including any recommended changes to the authorization or purposes of the Fund;

(4) best practices for other Federal agencies in the administration of funds intended for land and habitat restoration;

(5) information on the use and outcome of funds specifically set aside for planning and capacity building pursuant to section 6; and

(6) any other information that the Foundation considers relevant.

(c) Submission of Reports to Congress.—Not later than 10 days after receiving a report under this section, the Secretary shall submit the report to the Committee on Natural Resources of the House of Representatives and the Committee on Environment and Public Works of the Senate.
SEC. 12007. AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS.

There is hereby authorized to be appropriated to the Fund $100,000,000 for each of fiscal years 2022 through 2027 to carry out this division.
