

AMENDMENT TO RULES COMM. PRINT 119–8
OFFERED BY MR. PANETTA OF CALIFORNIA

At the end of subtitle D of title XII, add the following new section:

1 SEC. 12 ____ . INCLUSION OF SPECIAL OPERATIONS FORCES
2 IN PLANNING AND STRATEGY RELATING TO
3 THE ARCTIC REGION.

4 (a) STRATEGY.—

5 (1) REQUIREMENT.—Not later than one year
6 after the date of the enactment of this Act, the 7 Commander of the United States Special Operations
8 Command, in consultation with the Secretary of De-
9 fense and the Commander of the United States
10 Northern Command, shall develop and submit to the 11 Committees on Armed Services of the House of Rep-
12 resentatives and the Senate a Special Operations 13 Forces Arctic Security Strategy, applicable across 14 each component of the special operations forces and 15 within each Armed Force (in this section referred to 16 as the “strategy”).

17 (2) REQUIREMENTS.—The strategy shall—

18 (A) build upon the findings of the report
19 under section 1090(a)(3) of the National De-

1 fense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2022
2 (Public Law 117–81; 10 U.S.C. 113 note) and 3 the 2022 National Defense Strategy;

4 (B) facilitate a consistent understanding of 5 Arctic security priorities across the Department 6 of Defense and a common understanding of the 7 use and purpose of special operations forces for 8 Arctic activities across the Armed Forces, com-
9 batant commands, and other relevant elements
10 of the Department of Defense; and

11 (C) promote greater use and prioritization
12 of special operations forces capabilities, particu-
13 larly with respect to the special operations force
14 of the Army, in Arctic security planning and co-15 ordination with Indigenous populations and 16 High North allies and partners.

17 (b) ELEMENTS.—The strategy shall include the fol-
18 lowing:

19 (1) A plan for the leveraging of North Amer-
20 ican Indigenous Arctic populations, and the estab-
21 lishment of working definitions and parameters for 22 cooperation with such populations in the following 23 areas:

24 (A) Intelligence, surveillance, and recon-
25 naissance gathering.

1 (B) Improved Arctic training and oper-
2 ation tactics, techniques, and procedures.

3 (C) Empowering local populations to create
4 solutions to regional issues.

5 (D) Building resilience against invasion
6 and occupation and enhancing deterrence capa-
7 bilities.

8 (E) Improving the capacity of allies and 9 partners to build capabilities in the region that 10 produce advantages against adversaries.

11 (F) Building United States credibility for 12 combat operations in the region.

13 (G) Demonstrating United States commit-
14 ment to improving living standards in the re-
15 gion.

16 (H) Any other area the of the Commander
17 of the United States Special Operations Com-
18 mand determines appropriate.

19 (2) A requirement that special operations forces
20 achieve readiness with respect to not more than two 21 Arctic environments.

22 (3) With respect to terminology and working
23 definitions of the Department—

24 (A) a requirement that—

1 (i) the use of the terms “Arctic-capable” and “Arctic-ready” may no longer be 2 used in any document or other material
3 produced by the Department of Defense
4 that outlines Arctic strategies;

5 (ii) the replacement terms “Arctic-trained” and “Arctic-proficient” shall be 6 used in lieu of “Arctic-capable” and “Arctic-ready”, respectively; and

7 (iii) the Department shall provide 8 clear definitions and readiness requirements for each replacement term under 9 clause (ii).

10 (B) a review of terminology, and the use of 11 such terminology, relating to military doctrinal 12 readiness (such as the terms “trained” and 13 “proficient”) in the Arctic context, to ensure 14 that the Armed Forces meet operational expectations and may fully partake in joint-training 15 exercises with allies and partners of the United 16 States.

17 (4) A description of the conditions necessary to 18 establish a standardized pathway for self-validation
19 for each Armed Force that requires units to be Arctic capable, with such standardized pathway being

1 tailored to each Armed Force but consistent with re-2 spect to shared terminology, an agreed upon list of 3 Arctic environments, and agreed upon standards to 4 become Arctic capable in each such environment.

5 (5) A requirement that the Commander of the 6 United States Special Operations Command, in con-
7 sultation with the Secretary of Defense and the 8 Commander of the United States Northern Com-
9 mand, include in any future years plan for the Arc-
10 tic Security Initiative required under section
11 1090(b)(2)(B) of the National Defense Authoriza-
12 tion Act for Fiscal Year 2022 (Public Law 117–81; 13 10 U.S.C. 113 note) the following:

14 (A) Updates on ongoing priorities for Arc-
15 tic objectives of the special operations forces.

16 (B) Assessments of the integration of Arc-
17 tic operations of the special operations forces, 18 including the use of Indigenous approaches to 19 domain awareness.

20 (C) A description of the activities and re-
21 sources needed for the special operations forces
22 to obtain readiness in the Arctic region, includ-
23 ing manning, training, equipping, and funding
24 requirements.

1 (D) Any other matter the Commander of 2 the United States Northern Command and the 3 Secretary of Defense jointly determine appro-
4 priate.

5 (6) A requirement that, on an annual basis, the
6 Commander of the United States Special Operations
7 Command submit to the Committees on Armed 8 Services of the House of Representatives and the 9 Senate a progress report (in unclassified form, but 10 with the option of including a classified annex) on 11 the implementation and use of the strategy, includ-
12 ing—

13 (A) an assessment of the ability of the 14 strategy to address new and ongoing concerns;

15 (B) areas relating to the strategy in need
16 of improvement, including any new funding nec-
17 essary;

18 (C) use of the strategy across each Armed 19 Force; and

20 (D) an updated threat assessment with re-
21 spect to the Arctic region.

22 (c) DEFINITIONS.—In this section, the term “special 23 operations forces” means forces described under section
24 167(j) of title 10, United States Code.

