10

OFFERED BY MR. PANETTA OF CALIFORNIA

At the end of subtitle G of title X, add the following new section:

1 SEC. 10__ . TABLETOP EXERCISE ON EXTREME ENVIRON-
2 MENTAL HAZARDS IN THE INDO-PACIFIC RE-
3 GION.

4 (a) TABLETOP EXERCISE.—

5 (1) REQUIREMENT.—Not later than one year
6 after the date of the enactment of this Act, the 7 Commander of the United States Indo-Pacific Com-
8 mand, in consultation with the Secretary of the 9 Navy and the head of the institution selected by the 10 Commander under paragraph (3), shall conduct at 11 least one national tabletop exercise to assess the 12 ability of the Armed Forces and military forces of 13 allies or partners of the United States to confront
14 aggressive adversarial threats in the Indo-Pacific re-
15 gion while simultaneously confronting extreme envi-
16 ronmental hazards.

1           (2) ELEMENTS.—The exercise conducted under 2 paragraph (1) shall evaluate, at a minimum, the fol-
3 lowing:

4           (A) The resilience of United States weap-
5 ons, systems, force posture, and command and 6 control to withstand extreme environmental 7 hazards during a single combat contingency in 8 the Indo-Pacific region.

9           (B) The mobility of the Armed Forces in 10 the event of attacks upon critical infrastructure
11 and logistical chokepoints pertinent to a contin-
12 gency involving an ally or partner.

13           (C) The ability of the Armed Forces to 14 conduct logistics in a constrained environment,
15 including the ability to resupply United States
16 and allied forces, and civilian populations.

17           (D) The resiliency of the Indo-Pacific
18 Command to withstand extreme environmental 19 hazards.

20           (E) The response of the Department of 21 Defense to partial or complete loss of overseas
22 critical infrastructure.

23           (F) The ability of the Armed Forces, in co-
24 ordination with allies and partners, to resist
25 force or other coercion by an aggressor if com-

1           mand and control is compromised due to ex-
2           treme environmental conditions.

3           (G) The options of the Federal Govern-
4           ment to ensure the viability of overseas critical
5           infrastructure in the event of a military contin-
6           gency, including assets in Japan, the Republic
7           of Korea, Guam, the Northern Marianas, Ha-
8           waii, and the Philippines.

9           (H) Air defense capabilities to deter mis-
10          sile threats from the People's Republic of China
11          or the Democratic People's Republic of Korea
12          during a military conflict.

13          (I) The ability of naval projection forces to 14          defend against adversarial threats while oper-
15          ating under compromised conditions.

16          (J) The survivability of critical military
17          forces, particularly air and naval forces.

18          (K) The ability of air forces to conduct
19          agile combat employment operations under com-
20          promised positions.

21          (L) The efficacy of ground-based targeting 22          and firing in the Indo-Pacific to support key
23          missions amidst extreme environmental condi-
24          tions.

1           (3) LOCATION.—The exercise conducted under 2 paragraph (1) shall be conducted at a postsecondary 3 educational institution of the Navy selected by the
4 Commander of the United States Indo-Pacific Com-
5 mand. In making such selection, the Commander
6 shall consider the following elements:

7           (A) Geographic proximity to the United 8 States Indo-Pacific Command area of responsi-
9 bility.

10           (B) Leadership in science and technology,
11 academic research, and applied design for inno-
12 vation to meaningfully participate or provide 13 analysis on the exercises described in paragraph 14 (2).

15           (C) Experience and capacity to conduct a
16 tabletop exercise impacted by extreme environ-
17 mental conditions.

18           (D) Leadership in meeting objectives of 19 the Department of the Navy to create resilient
20 and sustainable military capabilities that can 21 withstand extreme weather conditions.

22           (4) PREPARATION.—The tabletop exercise shall 23 be prepared by personnel of the United States Indo-24 Pacific Command, selected by the Commander in 25 consultation with the Secretary of Defense, the Sec-

1       retary of the Navy, and the head of the institution
2       selected by the Commander under paragraph (3).

3           (5) PARTICIPANTS.—Participants in the table-
4       top exercise may include the following, as deter-
5       mined appropriate by the Commander:

6           (A) Personnel of the Department of De-
7       fense.

8           (B) Representatives of thinktanks or other
9       entities of the United States.

10          (C) Representatives of allies and partners,
11       subject to the approval of the Secretary of De-
12       fense and the Secretary of State.

13          (6) FREQUENCY.—In addition to the exercise
14       conducted under paragraph (1), other such tabletop
15       exercises may be conducted not more than twice per 16       year during the during the period of four years fol-
17       lowing the date of the enactment of this Act., at 18       dates and times determined by the Commander of 19       the of the United States Indo-Pacific Command and 20       the head of the institution selected by the Com-
21       mander under paragraph (3).

22          (b) BRIEFING.—Following the conclusion of a table-
23       top exercise conducted under subsection (a), the Com-
24       mander of the United States Indo-Pacific Command and 25       a nongovernmental participant determined by the Com-

1 mander, shall provide to the appropriate congressional 2 committees a briefing on the tabletop exercise. Such a
3 briefing shall include—

4 (1) an assessment of the decision-making, capa-
5 bility, and response gaps observed in the tabletop ex-6 ercise; and

7 (2) recommendations to improve the resiliency
8 of, and reduce vulnerabilities in, the domestic critical 9 infrastructure of the United States in the event of 10 a military contingency involving an ally or partner.

11 (c) DEFINITIONS.—In this section:

12 (1) The term “ally or partner” means Taiwan,
