1           (1) the term “good standing” means—

2                   (A) that the Federal law enforcement offi-
3           cer is in good standing with the Federal agency
4           that issued the handgun to such officer;

5                   (B) that prior to the purchase of a retired
6           handgun under subsection (a) the Federal law
7           enforcement officer was authorized by law to 8           engage in the prevention, detection, investiga-
9           tion, prosecution of, or in the incarceration of,
10          any person for any violation of the law and had 11          statutory powers of arrest;

12                   (C) that prior to the purchase of a retired
13          handgun under subsection (a) the Federal law
14          enforcement officer served for an aggregate of 15          10 years or more as a Federal law enforcement

1 officer or retired from service as a Federal law
2 enforcement officer, after completing any appli-
3 cable probationary period of such service, due
4 to a service connected disability, as determined
5 by the Federal agency that issued the handgun
6 to such officer;

7 (D) that in the 12 month period prior to 8 the purchase of a retired handgun under sub-
9 section (a), the Federal law enforcement officer
10 has met, at their own expense, the standards
11 for qualification in firearms training for active
12 Federal law enforcement officers, as determined
13 by the Federal agency that issued the handgun
14 to such officer, the State in which the Federal 15 law enforcement officer resides or, if the State
16 has not established such standards, either a law
17 enforcement agency within the State in which 18 the Federal law enforcement officer resides or 19 the standards used by a certified firearms in-
20 structor that is qualified to conduct a firearms
21 qualification test for active duty officers within 22 that State;

23 (E) that the Federal law enforcement offi-
24 cer has not been officially found by a qualified 25 medical professional employed by the Federal

1 agency that issued the handgun to such officer
2 to be unqualified to possess such a handgun;

3 (F) that the Federal law enforcement offi-
4 cer has not entered into an agreement with the 5 Federal agency that issued the handgun in 6 which they acknowledged they are not qualified
7 to possess such a handgun;

8 (G) that the Federal law enforcement offi-
9 cer has not been found to have at any time
10 been under the influence of alcohol or intoxi-
11 cating or hallucinatory drugs or illicit sub-12 stances while carrying such a handgun; and

13 (H) that the Federal law enforcement offi-
14 cer is not prohibited by Federal law from re-
15 ceiving a handgun.
