

1           (2) The presence of security forces and intel-
2           ligence officers from a U.S. foreign adversary coun-
3           try in UN missions poses a potential risk to the in-
4           tegrity of those operations and to U.S. national se-
5           curity interests and personnel.

6           (3) There is a need to ensure that U.S. defense
7           articles and services are not used by a U.S. foreign 8           adversary country's security or intelligence officers
9           operating as UN forces.

10          SEC. _____. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision
11          of law, U.S. defense articles and defense services may not 12          be used in support of any United Nations mission in which 13          UN forces include personnel from U.S. foreign adversary
14          countries that are contributing or participating.

15          (b) For purposes of this section:

16               (1) The term "defense articles and defense 17               services" is defined pursuant to section 47 of the 18               Arms Export Control Act (22 U.S.C. 2794).

19               (2) The term "United Nations mission" in-20               cludes peacekeeping operations, special political mis-
21               sions, and any other field-based operation directed
22               or authorized by the UN Security Council or Gen-
23               eral Assembly.

24               (3) The term "foreign adversary country"
25               means a country specified in section 4872(d)(2) of

1 title 10, United States Code and any country the 2 Secretary of State has determined, for purposes of 3 section 620A of the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961,
4 section 40 of the Arms Export Control Act, section
5 1754(c) of the Export Reform Control Act of 2018
6 (50 U.S.C. 4813(c)), or any other provision of law,
7 is a government that has repeatedly provided sup-
8 port for acts of international terrorism.

9 SEC. _____. (a) The United States shall withhold, sus-
10 pend, or cancel its contributions to any United Nations
11 agency or entity upon determination by the Secretary of 12 State, in consultation with the U.S. Permanent Represent-
13 ative to the UN, that U.S. defense articles or defense serv-
14 ices were employed—after the date of enactment of this 15 Act—by personnel of the security forces or intelligence
16 agencies of an U.S. foreign adversary country in a UN 17 mission.

18 (b) The Secretary of State shall submit to Congress, 19 not later than 60 days after the date of enactment of this 20 Act, and annually thereafter, the following detailed infor-
21 mation:

22 (1) The total value and percentage of UN pro-
23 curement contracts awarded to U.S. companies.

24 (2) A list of UN procurement awards that in-
25 clude U.S. defense articles and services.

1           (3) A list of UN missions that include per-
2           sonnel from U.S. foreign adversary countries.

3           (4) The total U.S. financial contributions to 4           UN operations and missions for the corresponding 5           year.

6           (5) Any disparities and proposed adjustments
7           consistent with the sense of Congress expressed in 8           Section 2.

9           (c) The Secretary of State shall submit to Congress,
10          90 days from the date of enactment of this Act, a one-
11          time strategy to engage the United Nations on suspending
12          voluntary contributions of personnel from U.S. foreign ad-
13          versary countries and the suspension of procurement 14          awards for companies that are state owned enterprises of 15          U.S. foreign adversary countries.
