5 Not later than 90 days after the date of the enact-
6 ment of this Act, the Secretary of Defense shall submit
7 to Congress a report on the prevalence of sexual abuse
8 and harassment of persons during the medical examina-
9 tion that precedes entry into the Armed Forces. Such re-
10 port shall include the following:

11 (1) The number of incidents of sexual abuse or 12 harassment that have been reported since 2000, if 13 available.

14 (2) A description of the process by which the 15 Department of Defense tracks the incidents of sex-
16 ual abuse or harassment, if applicable.

17 (3) A plan to establish a process by which the 18 Department tracks the incidents of sexual abuse or

1 harassment, including of the medical professionals
2 involved, if such a process does not exist.

3 (4) A plan to provide awareness training re-
4 garding sexual abuse and harassment provided to 5 medical professionals who perform such examina-
6 tions, if such training does not exist.

7 (5) A plan to provide recruits with information
8 on their rights and responsibilities in the event they 9 face sexual abuse and harassment that is incident to 10 service but prior to starting service in the Armed 11 Forces, if such information does not exist.

12 (6) A description of the legal redress available
13 to persons who experience such sexual abuse and 14 harassment, including through the Uniform Code of 15 Military Justice, for those who enter the Armed 16 Forces.
