3 SEC. 101. ADMISSION OF REFUGEES.

4 Subsection (a) of section 207 of the Immigration and 5 Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. 1157(a)) is amended to read
6 as follows:

7 “(a)(1) Except as provided in subsection (b), the 8 number of refugees who shall be admitted under this sec-
9 tion shall be such number as the President determines,
10 before the beginning of the fiscal year and after appro-
11 priate consultation, is justified by humanitarian concerns
12 or is otherwise in the national interest.

13 “(2) Admissions under this subsection shall be allo-
14 cated among refugees of special humanitarian concern to 15 the United States in accordance with a determination
16 made by the President after appropriate consultation.

17 “(3) In the determination made under this subsection
18 for each fiscal year, the President shall enumerate, with 19 the respective number of refugees so determined, the num-

1 ber of aliens who were granted asylum in the previous 2 year.

3 “(4) No fewer refugees shall be admitted under this 4 section than the number the President determines pursu-
5 ant to paragraph (1) unless no refugee has a pending ap-
6 plication before the United States.”.
