1           “(C) AMERICAN SIGN LANGUAGE INTER-2           PRETATION SERVICES.—If a creditor is required
3           under subparagraph (A) to provide oral inter-4           pretation services to a consumer, and if such 5           consumer has indicated a preference for Amer-
6           ican Sign Language, such creditor shall ensure 7           qualified American Sign Language interpreta-
8           tion services, as defined by the Director of the 9           Bureau, are made available to the consumer for 10          all oral communications between such creditor
11          and the consumer, where such American Sign
12          Language interpretation services may be pro-
13          vided by qualified staff of the creditor or a 14          qualified third party.”.
