

Provided that, notwithstanding any other provision of law, no funds shall be available to involuntarily relocate a person from one agency geographic location to another agency geographic location (including geographic relocations from one agency to another), unless such geographic relocation has been specifically authorized by Congress, or is a part of a normal geographic rotation policy for employee(s) (including mobility agreements) that was in effect between January 21, 2021 through January 19, 2025.