1 “(4) DUTIES.—If a court established under 2 subsection (a) or (b) designates a special advocate to 3 participate as an amicus curiae in a proceeding, the 4 special advocate—

5 “(A) shall advocate, as appropriate, in sup-
6 port of legal interpretations that advance indi-
7 vidual privacy and civil liberties;

8 “(B) shall have access to all relevant legal 9 precedent, and any application, certification, pe-
10 tition, motion, or such other materials as are 11 relevant to the duties of the special advocate;

12 “(C) may consult with any other special 13 advocates regarding information relevant to any 14 assigned case, including sharing relevant mate-
15 rials; and

16 “(D) may request that the court appoint
17 technical and subject matter experts, not em-
18 ployed by the Government, to be available to as-

1 sist the special advocate in performing the du-
2 ties of the special advocate.”.
