1                   “(iii) MITIGATING EVIDENCE AND
2                   FACTORS.—In determining whether an
3                   alien is deportable under this subpara-
4                   graph, the official making the determina-
5                   tion shall consider the mitigating evidence
6                   and factors which weigh against such de-
7                   termination, including the following:

8                                 “(I) The severity of the acts com-
9                                 mitted by the alien.

10                                “(II) If the acts were committed
11                                with intent to harm.

12                                “(III) If the acts resulted in 13                                harm to the law enforcement officer
14                                and the extent of the harm caused.

15                                “(IV) Whether the alien is or was 16                                a member of the Armed Forces of the 17                                United States.

18                                “(V) The alien’s length of stay in 19                                the United States.

1 “(VI) The alien’s ties to the com-
2 munity.”.
