(2) REQUIRED ELEMENTS.—The force structure plan shall include, at a minimum, the following elements:

   (A) The probable end-strength levels of the Armed Forces and major military force units, including land force divisions, carrier and other major combatant vessels, air wings, and other comparable units, identified by the Secretary as needed to meet the probable threats to the national security of the United States identified under paragraph (1).

SEC. 3006. FINAL SELECTION CRITERIA FOR MAKING RECOMMENDATIONS FOR CONSOLIDATION, CLOSURE, AND REALIGNMENT OF MILITARY INSTALLATIONS.

alignment action, for the savings to exceed the costs.

   NET-SAVINGS.—The Secretary may not make a rec-

(e) Effect on Department and Other Agency Costs.—The final selection criteria relating to the cost savings or return on investment from a recommended consolidation, closure, or realignment action shall take into account the effect of the consolidation, closure, or realignment on the costs of any other activity of the Department or any other Federal agency that may be required to assume responsibility for activities performed at the military installation to be consolidated, closed, or realigned.

In determining the amount of consideration to be required, the Secretary shall make a good faith effort to ensure that the conveyance of the property achieves an economical and appropriate outcome for the Department, considering the operations and maintenance costs for the Department to continue the carry the property on its records and the ability to help the redevelopment authority implement its approved redevelopment plan. The determination of such consideration may account for the economic conditions of the local affected community and the (C)(i) Before acquiring non-Federal real property as the location for a new or replacement Federal facility of any type, the head of the Federal agency acquiring the property shall consult with the Secretary regarding the feasibility and cost advantages of using Federal property or facilities at a military installation closed or realigned or to be closed or realigned under this title as the location for the new or replacement facility. In considering the availability and suitability of a specific military installation, the Secretary and the head of the Federal agency involved shall obtain the concurrence of the redevelopment authority with respect to the installation and comply with the redevelopment plan for the installation.

the use to assist the homeless of the buildings and prop-
