

AMENDMENT TO
RULES COMMITTEE PRINT 118-10
OFFERED BY MR. KRISHNAMOORTHY OF ILLINOIS

At the end of subtitle B of title XVIII, add the following new section:

1 SEC. 18___. REPORT AND STRATEGY ON DEVELOPMENT OF
2 RELATIONSHIPS BETWEEN FOREIGN ADVER-
3 SARIES AND STATE AND LOCAL GOVERN-
4 MENTS AND PRIVATE SECTOR ACTORS.

5 (a) REPORT.—

6 (1) REQUIREMENT.—Not later than 90 days
7 after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Di-
8 rector of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (acting
9 through the heads of the intelligence elements of the 10 Federal Bureau of Investigation), in consultation
11 with the Under Secretary of Homeland Security for 12 Intelligence and Analysis and the heads of such 13 other Federal departments or agencies as the Direc-
14 tor determines appropriate, shall submit to the ap-
15 propriate congressional committees a report on ef-
16 forts of foreign adversaries of the United States to 17 develop relationships with State and local govern-
18 ments of the United States and private sector actors

1 in the United States, particularly such efforts that 2 may enable economic or political coercion, including
3 through the use of foreign investment capital.

4 (2) ELEMENTS.—The report under paragraph
5 (1) shall include the following:

6 (A) The methods that foreign adversaries
7 of the United States are using to attempt to de-
8 velop relationships with State and local govern-
9 ments of the United States and private sector
10 actors in the United States.

11 (B) The degree to which foreign state ac-
12 tors are using economic investment that is not 13 within the jurisdiction of the Committee on 14 Foreign Investment in the United States to ex-
15 ercise influence among State and local govern-
16 ments of the United States and private sector
17 actors in the United States.

18 (C) The degree to which foreign state ac-
19 tors are using economic investment that is not
20 disclosed to the Committee on Foreign Invest-
21 ment in the United States to exercise such in-22 fluence.

23 (D) The spectrum of relationships, ranging 24 from benign to problematic to malign, between 25 foreign adversaries and public officials of State

1 and local governments of the United States and 2 private sector actors in the United States.

3 (E) Detailed, anonymized examples, or de-
4 tailed, realistic hypotheticals, describing how re-
5 lationships described in subparagraph (D) be-
6 came malign over time.

7 (F) Best practices for public officials of 8 State and local governments of the United 9 States and private sector actors in the United 10 States to develop relationships with foreign gov-
11 ernments while avoiding economic coercion or 12 other forms of gray zone activities.

13 (b) STRATEGY.—

14 (1) REQUIREMENT.—The Director of the Fed-
15 eral Bureau of Investigation (acting through the 16 heads of the intelligence elements of the Federal Bu-
17 reau of Investigation), in consultation with the 18 Under Secretary of Homeland Security for Intel-
19 ligence and Analysis and the heads of such other
20 Federal departments or agencies as the Director de-
21 termines appropriate, shall develop a written strat-
22 egy to improve the ability of public officials of State
23 and local governments of the United States and pri-
24 vate sector actors in the United States to defend 25 against the efforts of foreign adversaries to develop

1 relationships that may enable economic or political
2 coercion. Such strategy may include—

3 (A) establishing a working group of offi-
4 cials of the United States Government, public
5 officials, local public officials, and the private 6 sector; and

7 (B) providing information through brief-
8 ings, trainings, and other methods.

9 (2) SUBMISSION.—Not later than 120 days
10 after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Di-
11 rector of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (acting
12 through the heads of the intelligence elements of the 13 Federal Bureau of Investigation) shall—

14 (A) submit to the congressional intelligence
15 committees and make publicly available on an 16 internet website of the Federal Bureau of In-
17 vestigation the strategy under paragraph (1); 18 and

19 (B) provide to such committees a briefing
20 on the strategy.

21 (c) STATE DEFINED.—In this section, the term
22 “State” means the several States and any territory or pos-
23 session of the United States.
