AMENDMENT TO RULES COMMITTEE PRINT 118–10
OFFERED BY MS. SHERRILL OF NEW JERSEY

At the end of subtitle C of title XII, add the following new section:

SEC. 12__. REPORT ON EFFECTIVENESS OF CERTAIN [DEFENSE PRODUCTS] USED DURING UKRAINE-RUSSIA CONFLICT.

(a) Report.—

(1) Submission.—Not later than May 1, 2024, the Secretary of Defense, acting through the Under Secretary of Defense for Intelligence and Security, in coordination with the Director of the Defense Intelligence Agency, the Assistant Secretary of Defense for International Security Affairs, and the Commander of the United States European Command, and in consultation with the Secretary of State and the Director of National Intelligence, shall submit to the appropriate congressional committees a report on the use and effectiveness of covered information authorized and provided by the United States Government to the Government of Ukraine.
and the governments of others countries in Europe in connection with the Ukraine-Russia conflict.

(2) MATTERS.—The report under paragraph (1) shall address, in particular, the use and effectiveness of written and graphical covered information authorized and provided by the United States Government, in both classified and unclassified form, to the foreign governments referred to in such paragraph and shall include, at a minimum, the following:

(A) An assessment of the effects of the covered information so provided since September 2021 on the defense objectives of the United States with respect to the Ukraine-Russia conflict.

(B) An assessment of—

(i) whether the use by such foreign governments of covered information so provided resulted in any improved international relations or new bilateral or multilateral programs; and

(ii) the effects on the level of support by the United States Government for the decisionmaking of the Government of Ukraine as a result of having provided covered information relevant to such decision-making.

(C) An assessment of best practices, since 2021, regarding the dissemination of covered information by the United States Government to foreign governments referred to in paragraph
(1) over the course of the Ukraine-Russia concflict, and plans and recommendations by the Secretary of Defense regarding the future provision of covered information to the Government of Ukraine in connection with the Ukraine-Russia conflict, and how such best practices may be applied to future crises.

(D) An assessment of the internal processes and procedures of the Department of Defense governing such dissemination, the specific types of materials so disseminated, and how, if at all, such processes, procedures, and types changed over the course of the Ukraine-Russia conflict to meet the foreign policy objectives of the United States.

(E) An assessment of the applicability of such processes, procedures, and types of covered information to be used by combatant commands other than the United States European Command, and any recommendations by the Secretary to support the development of a repeatable, secure, and appropriately expeditious process for similar dissemination efforts during peacetime, in the lead-up to a conflict, and in the immediate stages of a future conflict in Europe or in the areas of responsibility of such other combatant commands.

(3) Form.—The form of the report under paragraph (1) may be in classified form.

(b) Briefings.—

(1) Required briefing.—Not later than June 1, 2024, the Secretary of Defense shall provide to the Committees on Armed Services of the House of Representatives and the Senate a briefing on the matters covered by the report.

(2) Upon request briefings.—Upon the request of any appropriate congressional committee other than a committee specified in paragraph (1), the Secretary of Defense shall provide to that committee a briefing on the matters covered by the report.

(e) Definitions.—In this section:

(1) The term “appropriate congressional committees” means—
(A) the Committee on Armed Services, the Committee on Foreign Affairs, and the Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence of the House of Representatives; and

(B) the Committee on Armed Services, the Committee on Foreign Relations, and the Select Committee on Intelligence of the Senate.

(2) The term “covered information” means intelligence information or other information related to supporting overall objectives of the United States in Ukraine.
