1           (9) The Chinese Communist Party, by restrict-
2           ing access to its domestic film market, influences the 3           content and messaging of U.S. and other foreign 4           films by encouraging U.S. film producers to allow 5           Party officials and film producers with ties to the 6           Party to approve film content ahead of production.

7           (10) The Walt Disney Company has cooperated
8           with the “Turpan Municipal Bureau of Public Secu-
9           rity” and the “Publicity Department of CPC
10          Xinjiang Uyghur Autonomous Region Committee” of 11          XUAR to produce films.

12          (11) The U.S. Department of Commerce’s Bu-
13          reau of Industry and Security added the “Turpan
14          Municipal Bureau of Public Security” to its Entity
15          List.

16          (12) In 2016, the National Basketball Associa-
17          tion opened a training facility in Urumqi, XUAR, as 18          a part of a Chinese player-development program.

1           (13) A former National Basketball Association
2 employee described the atmosphere at these training
3 facilities as “a sweat camp for athletes”.

4           (14) The majority of the participants in the 5 National Basketball Associations player-development
6 program are children.

7           (15) China represents a $5 billion market for 8 the National Basketball Association.
