(j) RELIEF TO AIRPORT CONCESSIONS.—An airport sponsor shall use at least 2 percent of any funds received under subsection (a) to provide financial relief to airport concessionaires experiencing economic hardship by providing a minimum of 12 months waiver and forgiveness of lease obligations and concession fees (including percentage or minimum annual concessionaire revenue fees and other similar fees). With respect to funds under this subsection, airport sponsors must also show good faith efforts to provide relief to small business concerns owned and controlled by socially and economically disadvantaged businesses, as such terms are defined under section 47113 of title 49, United States Code.
